—OF—

HISTORIC SUBJECTS AND PRINCIPAL PLACES OF INTEREST.

MR. COUSINS offers the public a series of over 700 photographs, 7 x 9 inches, mounted or unmounted, of historic subjects. This is the most complete collection ever made of any locality. In addition to these is an extensive series showing the architectural beauties of old colonial doorways, stairways, fireplaces and interiors, for which Salem is so noted.

AMONG the Views enumerated in Mr. Cousins' catalogue are: No. 1, Essex street from Price block, looking east. This view is the first which impresses a stranger as he comes from the depot. Following this are several views of streets and localities. No. 7 is the Old Witch House, so called; the home of Roger Williams. No. 9 is Hawthorne's Birthplace and there are many other views of subjects connected with Hawthorne's career. No. 18 is Plummer Hall, the home of the Salem Athenæum, and on the site of the Governor Bradstreet house and the birthplace of the Historian Prescott. No. 36 is the original First Church building, erected in 1634, and the home of the first Protestant church organized in America. No. 50 is Oak Knoll, famous as the residence of Whittier, and of which there are several views. No. 56 is the Rebecca Nurse House, of more than ordinary interest. She was executed for witchcraft.

Nearly every house or object connected with witchcraft times is represented in this series.

No. 336 is a view of the Old North Bridge, the scene of the first armed resistance to British authority in Massachusetts, antedating Lexington one year and No. 607 is the Israel Hutchinson house, where the Danvers men, who fell at Lexington, were brought after the battle.

There are very many reproductions of paintings, and sketches made years ago of buildings long since destroyed.

The Price of any of these Views is 25c., or $3 Per Doz. A Catalogue will be Sent upon Application.

THE HAWTHORNE TILE, made at the famous Staffordshire pottery, in England, showing Hawthorne, his birthplace, the House of the Seven Gables and the old Town Pump. 50 cts.

PREFACE.

In issuing the first volume of the Beverly Blue Book we are highly gratified by the patronage bestowed upon it, both by the large number of subscribers and the many advertisers.

We have made the price of this book so low that no family can afford to be without it.

The new map published for this book will add considerably to the value of the work, and to many is worth the price of the book.

We wish to call attention to our advertisers as being among the leading business houses and most enterprising merchants, and it is to their liberal patronage that we are able to furnish so large a book for a nominal price.

We do not pretend we have got every name into the book, as some few houses were closed and some of the less favored streets are not included in the work. We have however a convenient House Guide, giving valuable information and all the leading residents of the place.

The list of Summer Residents for Manchester and Magnolia will be found complete by itself. We made a personal canvass, and have received many orders and have been encouraged by this class of residents.

Thanking our patrons for their orders, and hoping to issue the book again in the near future, we remain

Very truly,

EDWARD A. JONES.

Our Store is an Institution of Salem.

We have thousands of visitors every year who come to this old city to view its interesting historical spots, or who are sojourning for the Summer at some of the surrounding resorts.

Everyone who visits us, can readily see that in supplying our many departments with merchandise, we have borne in mind the fact that we are to cater to all classes of trade.

OUR THIRTY FIVE DEPARTMENTS

Are stocked with complete lines of the most desirable goods that can be obtained, and our prices are always satisfactory.

Our being connected with several gigantic enterprises, gives us advantages, unsurpassed by any house in the County and as good as any in the Country.

Many people who have been in the habit of doing their trading in Boston, find that our service is as good and many times better, than that of the Boston houses.

It has always been the aim of this house to treat everyone fairly, politely, giving them full value for money received. Every article bought of us is as represented by the salesman, and furthermore it is always worth the price paid.

OLD STYLE OR SMOKING CHIMNEY.

THE ALADDIN OR SMOKELESS CHIMNEY.

FOUND AT LAST!

A Safety and Smokeless Lamp Chimney.

"The Aladdin"

Constructed on a scientific principal, by admitting the air direct to the flame. You can by using this chimney, obtain a light with the same lamp nearly twice as powerful as you can get with the regular or old style chimney. The Aladdin is made of pure Lead Glass only, the kind that will not break from the heat. They will fit your old burner and are sold by grocers everywhere. The cuts actually show the effect of the different chimneys on the same light. Special agents wanted.

Library patronage is down

age at other area public libraries in Beverly Farms and Danvers confirms that many regular patrons of the library's main branch are turning elsewhere for reading material.

But not everyone is moving on.

"It doesn't really bother me," said Scott Woods, a student of North Shore Community College, which occupied the Hardie building before moving to Danvers last fall. The college maintains its Sohier Road building.

"As a matter of fact, I was taking classes here last year," Woods said. "I'm in here two or three times a week. I've had to go to other libraries a couple of times when a book I wanted was out, but it really isn't much of an inconvenience."

Except for chilly offices and drafty windows, Scully said patrons and employees have adapted "rather well" to the move into the Hardie building, which is expected to be the library's home through July 1993.

For customer convenience, Scully said, reference and children's book sections are on the main floor of the building.

"The only thing that's different is people can't browse in the stacks," Scully said. "No one can comprehend why we can't let them down there, but we can't because of regulations for handicapped accessibility to public places."

About 90 percent of the library's 140,000 volumes are in closed stacks located in the basement of the Hardie building. Because the basement shelves are only 20 inches apart to conserve space, Scully said the stacks violate guidelines for wheelchair accessibility required to be open to the public.

Instead, Scully said, all patrons must ask librarians to fetch books they may want after looking them up in the computer catalog.

Across Essex Street, the library building has been gutted to make way for interior renovations that Scully said will be in keeping with the original style of the 13,000-square-foot structure built in 1913.

While windows in the existing three-story building will be replaced, Scully said original window casings and doors will be preserved.

Scully said contractors also will try to preserve the marble foyer and stairway, as well as install ceiling and table lighting reminiscent of the library's original fixtures.

The rear wing of the library has been demolished and half of the addition's foundation has been dug. Clerk of the Works William Capone said 135 square yards of concrete will be poured Friday.

When complete, the library will have 54,000 square feet of space, including a ground-level children's room and a public function room for library events and community programs.

Manzi resigns as town accountant

TOPSFIELD — The Board of Selectmen Monday night voted unanimously but “with deep regret” to accept the resignation of Town Accountant Paul Manzi. Manzi has worked for the town for the past 3½ years.

Manzi, who earned $26,000 annually, will leave on April 17 to take a job as Taunton’s city auditor at a salary that is almost double his current pay, according to Selectman Paul Nowak.

“It’s very disappointing to see him leave. We’ve become very dependent on Paul,” Nowak said.

Selectmen appointed Manzi’s assistant, Bayne Demeritt, as interim town accountant, and increased her pay to $11 an hour. They did not state what her present salary is. They added they intend to advertise immediately for Manzi’s replacement.

Dog licences available at town clerk's office

BOXFORD — Dog licenses for 1992 are being issued at the Boxford town clerk’s office.

Licenses may be purchased at the town clerk’s office from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. every Monday through Thursday. They may also be obtained through mail by sending $10 for male and female dogs and $5 for neutered male and spayed female dogs.

BLUE BOOK

HOUSE GUIDE.

The Circulation is more than double of any ordinary Directory.

It goes directly into the homes and families.

It is read by the ladies and their friends as well as the men.

The advertisements are opposite reading matter. It furnishes a list of the ladies to any who wish to send notices to them alone.

It is not so large as a directory printed in coarse type, but there are as many names and most of them are printed twice. It contains all the features of a directory except the occupations.
